Ralph came in to talk let us know he's parking the mower parked for the season.

Danielle and Chelsie came in to express interest in continuing to mow the Westfield township cemeteries. The Trustees let them know to bring in a bid and the Trustees will decide. They also let the Trustees know that the Westfield cemetery has somehow got rutted up in the back. The Trustees said that they have a roller and, in the spring, they will work on it.

Tracy came in to give a report from the regional planning meeting. There are two townships that do not have zoning yet. They are predicting with Intel coming, Knox and Morrow county will see substantial growth and more development. The Health department is in search for a doctor. Morrow county is receiving grant money for upgrades. There is more development happening at the 61/71 exit.

Silas O' Silas is the project director for Ohio from NextEra Energy. They create renewable energy. NextEra is a public utility company and they do business in 48 other states. They are looking to put a battery storage unit in Westfield Township on a 10-acre piece of property within one mile of the power grid. He did not state where this piece of property will be. He stated that this facility will bring in tax revenue and financial relief for the township.

The Trustees are going to get a newsletter put together.
