Joel Staley attended this meeting.

September Revenues $18,215.59

September Expenditures $18,285.55

Barkley let us know that he had SPH and Pickens Underground Utilities Service, Inc. come out and run a camera to see what was causing the drainage issue on Oak St. It appears to be tree roots that have caused the issue and Barkley has contacted the engineer's office to let them know

A resident called to let the trustees know there was a truck cap on the side of the road. Barkley will go out after the meeting and get it picked up.

Zoning officer Joel Staley let us know that there are three houses being built in the township. There is flooding on Twp. Rd 162. The trustees will shoot grade and see what they can do.

Barkley moved second by Dreyer to adjourn until the next meeting of 10/2/2023. Roll call on Motion- Dreyer and Barkley- Yes
